COMMITTEE TO MAKE CONTRACT

For Lighting Streets of Greensboro.

Recommendations of Special Committee and Water and Light Commission Received—The Aldermen Empower Committee to Make Contract In Accordance with Recommendations—City to Do Its Own Pumping At Waterworks Station.

As was forecasted in Thursday's Telegram the special committee and the Water and Light Commission yesterday filed their report with the Board of Aldermen, the report recommending that the city do its own pumping at the waterworks station and that a contract be made with the North Carolina Public Service Company for lighting the streets. There are a number of provisions to be made in the contract.

The recommendations were submitted by Mr. W. T. Sergeant, chairman of the Water & Light Commission, and included the special report of the expert selected to estimate the cost of erecting and maintaining a municipal lighting plant, also the bid of the North Carolina Public Service Company for the lighting and pumping contract. The recommendations in full follow:

"Your special committee to which was referred certain matters regarding the pumping of the city's water, the lighting of the streets of the city, and the rates for domestic lighting, begs leave to report as follows:

"Attached hereto find the report of Mr. Samuel M. Gray, the expert employed by the committee. Also the letter from the committee to the North Carolina Public Service Company and its reply:

"Your committee is of opinion, and so recommends that the city do not accept the proposition for pumping the city water at 2 1/4 cents per thousand gallons, and that the Water & Light Commission be authorized to purchase all machinery necessary for said purpose.

"Your committee recommends that a contract be made with the North Carolina Public Service Company for 175 luminous lights to burn all night and every night at $58 per year per light; the contract to be for ten years; provided, the said company will pay the city the sum of $6,000 for its poles, wires, etc., now used in the city's lighting system; provided further, that the said company will give to private consumers of electricity a maximum rate of 10 cents per kilowatt hour with a discount of 5 per cent for cash.

"It is understood that all details in the matter of the use of tungsten lamps and other matters can be agreed upon in a contract to be prepared."

On motion of Alderman Clendinen the recommendations were received and the Water and Light Commission and the special committee, including Mayor Stafford, were empowered to make a contract with the Public Service Company as set forth in the recommendations. This was discussed at length and the motion carried.

As to the use of tungsten lamps, it is proposed to have these lamps stationed between the lamps where they are some distance apart and there are numerous shade trees along the street. Then there may be streets on which there are no lights or circuit and it might be decided to use one of these small lights in such places. Chairman Sergeant states that he would not expect the company to place one of these lights an unreasonable distance from a circuit. The cost of these lights as per the bid of the Public Service Company is $22 per year per lamp for a 75 watt 60 candle power lamp and $30 per lamp per year for a 100 watt 80 candle power lamp. The high cost of the light is due to the fact that the filaments of the tungsten lamps are extremely delicate and easily broken. They are supposed to burn for 5,000 hours, but are liable to give way much sooner. And a good shake puts light out of business.

Mr. E. C. Deal, manager of the Public Service Company, was seen yesterday afternoon after the meeting, but he declined to talk regarding the disposition of the matter until the committee had submitted its proposition. When asked as to the rate to private consumers he stated that the company had intended to lower its rates before the lighting contract came up and had begun preparing the rates. The new rates will go into effect about the first of the year and probably before, he said. The rates for electricity according to the proposed rate range from 12 cents per kilowatt to 5 cents per kilowatt, according to the quantity consumed. The rate for gas will be $1.35, minus a 10 per cent discount. The city wants a clause in the contract fixing the maximum charge for electricity at 10 cents per kilowatt.

GETTING READY FOR WORK.

A. & M. College Football Coach Promises Fine Team.

Raleigh, Sept. 9.—Eddie Green, the football coach for the North Carolina College of Agriculture and Mechanic Arts, is already getting his men in line for the "try-out" practice and has such an abundance of fine material, he says, that he will have no trouble in putting out about the best team the college has ever had—a goodly bunch of the best of the old players and a number of exceptionally promising freshmen. Manager Hoss has completed the schedule for the season in the following order: Wake Forest at Wake Forest, Sept. 24; Georgetown University at Raleigh Oct. 1; George Washington University at Raleigh, Oct. 8; Wake Forest at Raleigh Oct. 15; Villanova at Raleigh Oct. 20; Eastern College at Raleigh Oct. 29; Washington & Lee at Lynchburg, Nov. 5; Richmond College at Raleigh Nov. 12; Virginia Polytechnic Institute at Norfolk, Thanksgiving day, Nov. 24.

It develops that the report that the Raleigh street committee had granted permission for the street railway company to postpone indefinitely the work of placing the vitrified brick between the car tracks on Fayetteville street instead of carrying it right along with the work of putting down the asphalt was all a mistake. All that the committee has done is to consent for this work to be left to the last. That is the paving around capital square and down Martin street to the union station will be completed before the Belgium blocks between the tracks on Fayetteville street are taken up. It is understood that the spreading of the asphalt will begin Tuesday. A large part of the cement foundation is in place and fully seasoned ready to take on the asphalt.

Major B. F. Dixon, state auditor, left this morning for Waynesville to deliver an address in connection with a big Confederate reunion there. He will spend several days in the mountains getting a much needed rest.

County Superintendent R. B. White, of the Franklin county public schools notifies the state department of education that he has succeeded in getting through one more local tax district for the improvement of schools. It is in the Seven Forks district. Franklin now has a perfect network of local tax districts thanks to the constant and well directed efforts of Supt. White.

MUCH BUSINESS WAS TRANSACTED

By Aldermen Yesterday Afternoon.

Contract Let For Addition to Asheboro Street School, Work to Begin This Morning—Appropriation For Chamber of Commerce—Near Beer License Granted—License Granted to Number of Auto Drivers—Other Matters.

Mayor Stafford presided at yesterday's meeting of the Board of Aldermen and all the members of the board were present except Alderman Glascock. A considerable amount of business was dispatched, the session lasting from 2:30 to 5 o'clock. Excepting the report of the lighting contract committee, an account of which is given elsewhere, the items of greatest import were the awarding of the contract for the addition to the Asheboro street school and an appropriation for the Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. C. H. Ireland asked that the board accept the bid of Halladay & Crouse for the erection of the addition to the Asheboro street school, the cost being about $5,000. This was done on motion of Alderman King. The work will be commenced this morning and the contractors are under bond to complete the work within sixty working days.

Mr. C. H. Fields presented a petition to curbing on Chestnut street, in order that the property owners could lay sidewalk. Nearly all of the street is curbed already. This was referred to the Street Commission with the recommendation that the work be done.

L. M. Whitsell was granted license to conduct a near beer saloon at 344 South Elm street. Wm. Purvis, saloper, was granted license to conduct a pool room in the McCorkle building on South Elm street just across the railroad.

Mayor Stafford appointed Alderman Clendinen as a member of the Fire commission, succeeding Alderman Bain, resigned. Alderman Smith was appointed on the City Hall and Market committees, succeeding Mr. Bain.

It was decided to clean up the entrance to the opera house, by plastering and painting. Manager Tate having agreed to bear half the expense.

Mr. J. G. Frazier, candidate for senator; Mr. Wm. Perdew, candidate for sheriff; Mr. S. H. Hodgin, candidate for clerk, and Mr. J. H. Davis, candidate for treasurer, were present and submitted a few remarks, thanking those present for the honor conferred on them and promising good service if elected.

Judge W. P. Bynum, who presided, introduced Mr. Holton, who spoke for an hour. The speaker stated that Democrats were steadily losing votes, while the Republicans were gaining them all the time. He said the policy of the Republican party had been for the last forty years to protect the laboring man and hence the stand taken on the tariff question. The tariff was to enable the manufacturer to sell his goods for more in order to enable him to pay the employee more. The policy of the Democrats was to protect the consumer and not the producer. He declared that wages in Republican states were considerably higher than in states that were under Democratic rule. The Republican party had stood by the laboring man and worked to elevate him ever since the war, declared Mr. Holton. The speaker paid his respects to the state anti-trust law and declared that no prosecutions had ever resulted. He also mentioned the recent bond issue and the fact that a corporation had been called on to relieve the state of the necessity of a special session of the legislature. This was charged up against Democratic rule as, he said, the Democrats have been in power in the state for the past forty years. He also mentioned the fact that it now takes more money to run the government than it did forty years ago, this increase being called extravagance by Mr. Holton.

Alderman Smith called attention to bad conditions at several railroad crossings and said he was going to see that they were put in better condition if the city had the power to have it done. The board heartily concurred in this. The matter of citizens allowing weeds to grow along the sidewalks also came up and it was the sense of the board that the police after warning a party to cut the weeds should proceed to get out a warrant if the weeds were not cut.

SHELTER FOR PUPILS

It Will Be Built In Yard of Davie Street School and Will Meet a Real Need.

The City Board of Education decided yesterday on a much needed improvement in the yard of the Davie street school. It will be a shelter for the pupils when they are out at recess. As it is now, when they are out to get the air for themselves and to vacate the school rooms so that they can be aired, they are exposed to the sun and the rain.

A shelter the entire width of the school yard and measuring about twenty-five feet across will be built. The benefits of fresh air for the children are appreciated by the school authorities and they are anxious that the children shall enjoy this great blessing under the most advantageous circumstances.

REPUBLICANS OPEN CAMPAIGN

District Attorney Holton Makes Speech.

Just a Hundred and Five People In Court House When He Concluded—Four of the County Candidates Present—Mr. Holton's Speech a Disjointed Affair and on Every Point He Left Excellent Opening For Contradictory Remarks.

It was a good thing for District Attorney A. E. Holton that Republican County Chairman Worth refused to allow a Democratic speaker to engage him in joint debate at the opening of the county campaign last night for his argument would have been riddled beneath the facts that could have been advanced by even a second rate speaker. In fact many were surprised at the weakness of Mr. Holton's argument, for usually he is a strong speaker. As one expressed it after the meeting he had nothing on which to base his argument and therefore he could not be expected to make good.

When Mr. Holton concluded after talking for one hour there were by actual count 105 persons in the court room, including speaker, presiding officer and newspaper reporters. Fully twenty of these were Democrats. This was perhaps the maximum attendance for while several left during the speaking fully as many came in towards the last. State Chairman Morehead and Secretary Griscom came in, but they soon left. Although it was the opening of the county campaign and all the county candidates were expected to be present and make remarks only four out of the fourteen were on hand.

Mr. J. G. Frazier, candidate for senator; Mr. Wm. Perdew, candidate for sheriff; Mr. S. H. Hodgin, candidate for clerk, and Mr. J. H. Davis, candidate for treasurer, were present and submitted a few remarks, thanking those present for the honor conferred on them and promising good service if elected.

THE DIRECTORS OF THE U. S. MARINE BAND

Lieut. Santelmann the First To Bear a Title.

When Lieut. W. T. Santelmann will appear conducting the United States Marine Band at the Auditorium on September 15 in all the regalia of a first lieutenant of the navy, it must be thought that the leader of this band was always so honored. In fact, Mr. Santelmann is the first and only one who bears this title, which came to him under President McKinley when the uniform and salary of first lieutenant was given to him.

The early directors of the Marine Band were called fife-majors, owing to the fact that the first naval musical organization was composed of only fifes and drums. Even after other instruments were added, the title of fife-major was retained for a long time. Originally the leadership was given to the man best suited to hold the position.

The first man of note to serve in this capacity was J. L. Clubb, of the sloop Lexington, who was fife-major with only eleven men from 1815 to 1824. He was succeeded by Eutina Friquet for six years, and then Francis Schoenig held the baton for eleven years. During his leadership additions and improvements were made in the organization and the Marine Band came more into prominence.

Then followed a series of conductors of more or less musical ability until we come to John Philip Sousa in 1880. Sousa was in our own day and everyone knows how he popularized the band for twelve years in the National Capital and made it a distinctive element at official and social functions.

He was succeeded by Francesco Fanucci, who continued the work of his predecessor for several years. Now we come down to our own Lieut. Wm. H. Santelmann and you will see what an excellent organization he will present at the Auditorium in a concert that will show him not only as a leader but as a composer of merit.

OUT OF HOSPITAL

Ed Coltrane, Minus a Leg, to Stand Trial—Gave Much Trouble at Hospital.

Ed Coltrane, the negro that Oscar Robbins shot in the leg just one week ago today, whose leg was amputated by the surgeons the same day, will be discharged from St. Leo's Hospital today. Coltrane, who was a homeless vagrant, absolutely worthless, living on other negroes that did work, when he was shot by Robbins had no home that he could be taken and the police were forced to take him to St. Leo's. Instead of appreciating the kindness of the good sisters, nurses, and attending physicians that have been doing everything in their power to help him to a quick recovery, Coltrane has been most insulting, showing no appreciation and giving more trouble than any patient that has ever before been in the institution.

This negro bears a bad reputation, the police believing that he is responsible for a considerable cocaine traffic, and it was sworn evidence at the trial of Robbins that he gave the young negro who shot him cocaine in order that he might rob him. Many people are in sympathy with Robbins, who is now serving a term of one year on the roads for shooting Coltrane, believing that Coltrane and Young, his other victim who is still in the hospital, are greatly to blame for the shooting.

Coltrane is to be tried in Municipal court for selling cocaine and the hearing will probably take place today.

DEBS ROASTS ROOSEVELT

"If Rich Create Panic To Halt Him the Poor Will Suffer."

Manchester, N. H., Sept. 9.—Mr. Roosevelt is first and last a self-seeker, a Roosevelt man, and in all his spectacular political maneuvering he is always extremely cautious as to what effect his vaudeville performances will have upon his own political fortunes."

According to Eugene V. Debs, former Socialist nominee for President, Roosevelt in his speech launching the new nationalism forgot that it was "not Theodore Roosevelt's, but John Brown's birthday that was being celebrated."

"The new nationalism," said Debs today, "is a middle-class rebellion against the big interests." It is possible that the interests may precipitate a panic as the means of checking Roosevelt's insane ambitions, and the poor as usual will suffer."

WHITE RESIDENTS ANGRY.

A Family of Negroes Moves Into Residence of Fashionable Street in Baltimore.

Baltimore Sun.

A family of negroes, which recently purchased the house at 1802 McCullough street, moved into the place yesterday, much to the distress of the white residents in the block. This is one of the most fashionable districts of McCullough street and many of the residents are of prominent families. All of them are up in arms over the affair, but are a loss as to how to escape the "negro invasion."

Mr. M. J. Hammen, who lives at 1825 McCullough street, on seeing the negro moving into the house went to him to inquire his motive in getting into the neighborhood.

"Why did you not get a house on Druid Hill avenue or in some other negro district?" asked Mr. Hammen.

"It is none of your business," was the curt reply.

"It is an outrage for you to come here and cause the depreciation of our property," Mr. Hammen added.

"I am as good as you are," was the rejoinder.

Mr. Hammen argued with the negro only a few moments.

"You move on or I will brain you with this chair," the negro is said to have replied as he raised a chair ready to strike.

Mr. Hammen went to the Northwestern Police Station and applied to Justice Tyson for a warrant for the arrest of the negro. On explaining the circumstances Justice Tyson refused to issue a warrant. In giving his reasons the Justice said:

"Mr. Hammen, I sympathize with you, but I am not in a position to help you. As a matter of fact the negro has not committed a crime. He only threatened to do you bodily harm. Had he struck you the case would have been different. The fact that he is a undesirable neighbor does not constitute a crime. According to the laws of the State and nation he has all the rights and immunities of a white man. In truth you were the aggressor and no controversy would have happened had you not instigated the conversation."

Mr. Hammen recognized the force of the magistrate's argument and left the station house. In an interview he said the case was one of great alarm to the neighbors.

"Many of us," he said, "have acquired homes in that block after years of toil and sacrifice. Now we will be obliged to leave them or else be obliged to associate with negroes. There is no doubt that the invasion of the blacks will greatly depreciate our property. I do not blame them so much as the grasping real estate dealers who transact business with them."

At night the white residents of the block talked of little else but their new neighbors and how they could get rid of them. Several members of the negro family were out on the steps a part of the time and the white neighbors spent the evening indoors.

The residents expect to hold an indignation meeting Tuesday night in Norwood Hall.

AMUSEMENTS

Dustin Farnum's best character creation and Booth Tarkington and Harry Leon Wilson's latest remarkable play, "Cameo Kirby" comes to the Grand next Wednesday. Liebler & Company, the producing managers, have accorded this popular player lavish stage settings and costumes and an exceptionally strong supporting cast of artists for an adequate presentation of this absorbingly interesting comedy drama of life in and around New Orleans in the early thirties. The play has been one of the most generously discussed of the current season and the record achieved by Mr. Farnum during the long run of the piece at the Studebaker Theatre, Chicago, has proved conclusively his ability to portray character comedy roles, such as is the part of the Mississippi River gambler in his new play. Local theatre-goers will do well to include Mr. Farnum's performance in the schedule of their enjoyments.

Clara Lipman in "The Marriage of a Star."

Clara Lipman's success in "The Marriage of a Star" was so great that though the time at the Hackett Theatre, where she first produced the play, was all preempted for the season, the Comedy theatre was opened to her so may continue for a few weeks longer her New York run. Immediately at the conclusion of the New York engagement, Miss Lipman will for the first time in her career, make a tour through the South. Miss Lipman will visit Greensboro.

NO Depravity.

A gentleman who was seated behind a negro in a tramway car in Memphis vouches for this yarn:

All the seats were taken when a neatly dressed young negress, evidently a lady's maid, entered the car. This negro with a polite bow arose and offered her seat.

"I hate to deprive you, sah," she said, as she took it.

"Doan' mention it, miss," replied the swarthy Chesterfield; "it aint no depravity." — Bit-Tits.

Mrs. Jacob Wilmert, Lincoln, Ill., found her way back to perfect health.

She writes: "I suffered with kidney trouble and backache and my appetite was very poor at times. A few weeks ago I got Foley's Kidney Pills and gave them a fair trial. They gave me great relief, so continued till now I am again in perfect health." Holton Drug Co.

Reliable Medicine—NOT A NARCOTIC

Mrs. F. Marti, St. Joe, Mich., says

Foley's Honey and Tar saved her little boy's life.

She writes: "Our little boy contracted a severe bronchial trouble and as the doctor's medicine did not cure him, I gave him Foley's Honey and Tar in which I have great faith.

It cured the cough as well as the choking and gagging spells, and he got well in a short time. Foley's Honey and Tar has many times saved us much trouble and we are never without it in the house." Holton Drug Co.

From the date of the first settlement of America there was warfare with the Indians, and during the war of the Revolution there was also war with the British. But by that time the Indian fighting had retreated westward. In 1777 Harrodsburg, Ky., was surrounded by red men, and the people, not daring to go out to hunt for game, were often in great straits for food. The settlement was protected by one of those stockade forts used at that time for keeping off savages, and when they were hostile the inhabitants of the place were obliged to keep within its inclosure.

During this Indian hostility and consequent lack of food a youth of sixteen made himself invaluable by leaving the fort before dawn, hunting all day and returning after nightfall with the game he had shot. James Ray was the name of this brave boy, and he afterward became a general officer in the United States army.

One day Ray and a companion were outside the fort shooting at a mark. Suddenly Ray heard the report of a rifle and his friend fell dead. It did not require a process of reasoning for Ray to know that the shot had come from an Indian. Looking about him he saw the redskin who had killed his friend and raising his rifle was about to shoot him when there was a whoop from another quarter. Then Ray took to his heels and ran like a deer toward the fort a few hundred yards distant.

Ray was a very quick runner. The Indians could not catch him, though they followed him with a brisk fire. He reached the fort without having been hit, but found the gates closed. Those within had heard the firing, had shut themselves in and were too terrified to open the gates. Ray called upon them to let him in, but fearing that if they did the savages would follow him and massacre the garrison they refused to do so.

Ray threw himself flat on the ground, a stump covering him from the fire of the enemy. That is, the Indians couldn't hit him, though their bullets sang in such proximity to his ears as to make him think that the next would cut off one of them, or perhaps tear a strip out of his side or go through his foot. He was but half a dozen steps from the fort, within which he would be safe if he could only get there.

But this was impossible so long as the Indians were threatening him. Near enough to see those in the fort looking through the loop holes he talked with them about ways to extricate him from his position. While the bullets were singing on either side of him he was conversing with his mother. There seemed no way to relieve him except to open the gates, and by doing this many lives might be sacrificed in an ineffectual attempt to save one.

There was one in the fort who suffered as much, doubtless far more, than Ray himself. That was his mother. She looked through a loophole, where she could see him lying in his perilous position, and she could see each spurt of smoke as it left an Indian rifle, knowing that it marked the sending of a bullet to kill her boy. And Ray could not only hear the bullet sing by him and feel the dust springing over him, but saw his danger reflected in his mother's face.

Hour after hour passed without any change in the situation. When it seemed impossible for him to lie any longer in one position and be attempting to change it, the consequent exposure of some portion of his body would draw more fire, astonishing him to endure the constrained attitude rather than risk a wound by trying to relieve it. The ground on each side of him was torn up in furrows by the bullets that had been shot through it, and he was covered by dust they had thrown upon him.

Night was coming on and the Indians were drawing nearer. When it became dark there could be nothing to prevent the savages from coming near enough to take him or to shoot him from a position where the stump would not protect him. For four hours he had laid in view of those in the fort, his mother trying to encourage him, yet herself needing encouragement, when a sudden thought occurred to him.

"For heaven's sake," he cried, "dig a hole under the cabin wall and take me in."

All wondered why they hadn't thought of the plan before. Pick and spade were brought, and a hole was sunk in the ground. Then when it was of a depth sufficient to excavate under the wall, a channel was run out to the young hunter and he was drawn within in the fort.

Ray had no sooner emerged from the hole than he found himself hugged in his mother's arms, and the others crowded round to congratulate him. The redskins heard the shout of triumph that was raised in the fort and knew that the man they were firing at had escaped. But how? It was still light enough for them to keep in view the stump behind which he had taken refuge, and had he got up and been assisted over the stockade he would have been in their full view. The gate had not been opened. Surely the paleface had been translated into the fort by the Great Spirit.

Senator Beveridge says the United States "is". That's the grammar of it at any rate.

Editor Henry Watterson, in an editorial, wants to know if Roosevelt can Bryanize the Republican party. Well, if he keeps on at the gait he is going now he will surely Parkerize it.

An exchange, harking back to the law of retribution, remarks that "considering we had late spring, by rights we shall have a late fall." Well, we are getting our rights.

The doctors are doggedly persisting in their efforts to find a cure for cancer and sooner or later they are bound to succeed. Patients in San Francisco inoculated with a new serum are reported to be improving.

The public will welcome the tidings that there is prospect of an early solution of the lighting problem. Greensboro has been "Darktown" quite long enough. Let's have more and better lights.

It is freezing out in Dakota and the drop, modified somewhat it is to be hoped, will get here in due time—some time next week, the weather sharps say. It will be welcome for the weather of the week ending today has been specially trying.

In Michigan on Tuesday Julius Caesar Burrows was decisively beaten by Representative Townsend for Republican endorsement for United States Senator. The Aldrichites are losing ground, but we hope they will hold on long enough to defeat their party in 1910 and in 1912 as is now the prospect.

One newspaper correspondent puts it that Roosevelt is "drunk with adulation." That's about the size of it. The man is on a mental spree. He has been flattered so much that his head, as the saying goes, "has been turned." It looks now as if he will contest the Republican Presidential nomination with Taft and if he does, it is to be hoped that Taft will win.

Senator Lorimer, of Illinois, is charged with securing his election by bribery. But the charge is as yet officially unproven. So when Roosevelt declined to sit at a banquet with him, he did a very Pharisaical thing. A "holier-than-thou" attitude is always disgusting and it is doubly so in a self-confessed practical politician like Roosevelt.

Democratic National Chairman Norman E. Mack believes, he says, in peaceful methods. We have always heard that it is easier to catch flies with molasses than vinegar. Mack is all right. There is no need for Democrats to insult one another. Differences of opinion there will always be, but opposing sides can well afford to be respectful the one for the other.

Declaring that he made a mistake in seeking happiness in a change of soul mates, Frederic Pinney Earle, the artist, has gone to Europe to ask his first wife to take him back. Will she take him back? Not much, if she has any sort of self-respect. Since discarding his wife, Earle has beat, kicked and deserted his first affinity and lived with several other soul mates. Why the man hasn't been sent to the penitentiary for a good, long term is quite a mystery.

The Democrats of Minnesota are awfully anxious that John Lind will reconsider his previously announced decision not to accept the nomination for Governor. He was nominated in the face of his statement that he would positively not make the race. But Minnesota Democrats are a determined lot and they just won't give up Lind. From all accounts he is a truly great man and an interesting thing in connection with his career is that he forsook Republicanism for Democracy, changing his policies upon the tariff issue and refusing to follow the Republican party into the citadel of high protection. Minnesota is normally Republican and the fact that Lind, a tariff reform Democrat, could be elected Governor twice, as was the case, indicates how strong the movement for tariff reform is in Minnesota.

TWO DISTILLERIES RAIDED

Deputy Sheriffs Weatherly, Shaw and Crutchfield Again Get Busy.

Deputy Sheriffs W. J. Weatherly, J. H. Shaw and G. P. Crutchfield, accompanied by Messrs. Henry Andrew and A. D. May, returned last night from a successful raid in Rock Creek township. They left here Thursday night and reached their destination early yesterday morning. While away they destroyed two brandy distilleries and poured out about two hundred gallons of material that the operators were about ready to make into brandy. Part of the confiscated outfit was brought back to town, but what could not be brought back was destroyed.

The officers had received numerous complaints from citizens living in the community between Gibsonville and Whitsett, so late Thursday night they set out. They traveled nearly all night and came across the blockading outfit without much trouble. However, they found no one around but everything was in apple pie order and a considerable quantity of peach and apple brandy had already been made. Several gallons was found at one place and the "ardent" was placed in the county jail for safekeeping.

One of the stills was of about 70 gallon capacity and the other 30.

HOME-MADE FOUNTAIN OF YOUTH

Vitality of 80-Year-Old Wonder of Health Attributed to it. Boston Post.

The fountain of youth—baffling wonderlust of the ages—sought for by scientists and experts since the world began, is at last claimed to have been discovered by David P. Shaw, an octogenarian marvel-of youth of Attleboro, Mass.

Mr. Shaw says that he has found the life-renewing fountain. He says also that everyone can profit by it, and keep going.

His life was despaired of by doctors some time ago. Now he is accounted a wonder of health, vigor and youth. He can reel off from 50 to 75 miles on a bicycle at any time.

He performs feats of strength that amaze all who know him.

This is all due to his precious fountain, he asserts.

This fountain consists of an amount of good drinking water, some salt brine, a common $3 spray pump, a large tub to stand in, an ordinary washbowl and pitcher and a two-gallon stone pot or crock. Nothing else is necessary save to make the fountain perform its health restoring proclivities.

Thus Mr. Shaw explains its workings:

"I pour three quarts of water into the jar and then put in the pump and work it for all its worth to mix forcibly the water and the air, making the water a storage battery of vitality, which the skin will greedily absorb. Drink about half a pint of the water and save enough for a half-lemonade with honey, morning and night. Pour the remaining water into the bowl, add brine enough to meet your idea and bathe to your heart's content. I follow with a hundred deep-knee bends and there is no chill. There should be none."

Mr. Shaw will be 80 years of age next month. He appears not a day over 50 years of age, has a strong and graceful carriage, broad shoulders and a forearm which would do credit to a star-pitcher in a big league.

The Lash of a Fiend would have been about as welcome to A. Coopero, of Oswego, N. Y., as a merciless lung-racking cough that defied all remedies for years. "It has most trouble some at night," he writes, "nothing helped me till I used Dr. King's New Discovery which cured me completely. I never cough at night now." Millions know its matchless merit for stubborn colds, obstinate coughs, sore lungs, laryngitis, asthma, hemorrhage, croup, whooping cough, or hayfever. It relieves quickly and never fails to satisfy. HOW THE BIRDS HELP US.

One Pair of House Wrens Will Dispose of 1,000 Insects a Day.

We can easily induce a large number of birds to spend the coldest months around our northern homes. When they are not picking at the bones which we hang for them outside our windows, they will destroy myriads of the eggs of vermin, hidden under the bark of our fruit trees.

A very careful observer tells us that a single pair of house wrens will dispose of at least one thousand insects every day and that other birds serve us in about the same ratio. I want you to see this thing in its clearest light, as a matter of domestic economy to cultivate bird friendship. We must gather them about us and protect them, make our homes as pleasant to them as to ourselves. Any effort in this direction will be quickly appreciated, and the word will pass around among the tribes, until the wilder sorts come in and domesticate themselves.

My Clinton home is populous with not only robins and catbirds, but grosbeaks and indigo birds, and purple finches and tanagers, and of late the wood thrush and the Wisdom thrush have come to nest close by my house—singing in the shrubbery, with those long, silvery, echoing notes that a few years ago were heard only from the distant forest.

Your kidney trouble may be of long standing, it may be either acute or chronic, but whatever it is Foley's Kidney Remedy will aid you to get rid of it quickly and restore your natural health and vigor. "One bottle of Foley's Kidney Remedy made me well," said J. Sibbitt, of Grand View, Wis. Commence taking it now." Holton Drug Co.

STOMACH LIVER LUNGS

Each of the chief organs of the body is a link in the Chain of Life. A chain is no stronger than its weakest link, the body no stronger than its weakest organ. If there is weakness of stomach, liver or lungs, there is a weak link in the chain of life which may snap at any time. Often this so-called "weakness" is caused by lack of nutrition, the result of weakness or disease of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition. Diseases and weaknesses of the stomach and its allied organs are cured by the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. When the weak or diseased stomach is cured, diseases of other organs which seem remote from the stomach but which have their origin in a diseased condition of the stomach and other organs of digestion and nutrition, are cured also.

The strong man has a strong stomach.
Take the above recommended "Discovery" and you may have a strong stomach and a strong body.

MISS SEARS HAS HER PICK.

Two Strenuous Young Millionaires Seeking Her Hand.
Newport, R. I., Sept. 9.—It is likely to be pistols and coffee for two, now that Paul J. Rainey, the Cleveland and New York millionaire is back from his hunt in the Arctic Circle.

Rainey has been a constant admirer of the athletic Miss Eleonora R. Sears, advocate of strenuousness for women, and hurried here on his arrival from the frozen north to learn that Harold S. Vanderbilt, son of Mrs. O. H. P. Belmont, has been assiduously courting the young woman.

Young Vanderbilt has played tennis in a broiling sun, golf with actual speed and jumped a few hurdles on a bucking broncho just to show Miss Sears that he was "all there."

But when Rainey hurried here he brought with him many pelts of Arctic beasts that had fallen before his gun—at least he told Miss Sears they had—and now he and Vanderbilt do not speak, while each tries to "outstay" the other at the Sears mansion.

The announcement of the engagement of the young athlete to the more strenuous of the two young men is expected soon.

"A thing of beauty is a joy forever," quoted the Wise Guy. "Yes, until a woman finds out how much it costs," added the Simple Mug.

CAUSE OF ECZEMA EXPLAINED.

After years of debate medical authorities are now agreed that Eczema and other skin diseases are not seated in the blood, but are caused by myriads of microscopic animals gnawing the flesh just below the epidermis. The patient is perfectly healthy, it is only the skin that is diseased.

Hence, scientists are now agreed that you must cure the skin through the skin. The medicine must be in liquid form in order to penetrate properly. And we can say with confidence that we have the true remedy for Eczema in our store.

The instant you wash with this soothing liquid you will find the itch relieved. We positively assure you of this. Will you try a bottle (at only 25c), on our recommendation? Ask for D. D. D. Prescription. Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.

WOMAN BALKS ROBBER.

Pen-Mar Shooting Gallery Girl Proves Herself Heroine.
Pen-Mar, Md., Sept. 9.—Trolley passengers waiting for a car at the Pen-Mar terminal yesterday morning were witnesses of the pluck of a determined woman.

She is employed in the shooting gallery of Roy Harvey, of Baltimore, and is one of the most expert shots seen at the gallery this season, and, with the assistance of a gun, she compelled a man to keep his fingers out of the money till.

The fellow, who has been about the gallery for a time, appeared there in a rather dilapidated condition, it is said, and indicated that he wanted some money from the till. He did not seem ready to obey the woman's injunction to keep his hands off and provoked her to resolute action.

When her words of persuasion failed, she very determinedly picked up one of the guns and leveled it at the fellow. As she got a line on him she said:

"Now, go ahead, and let's see what you'll do!"

The man did not do anything. He knew her ability as a dead shot and he very discreetly kept his hands out of forbidden places, and, protesting loudly, "beat it" to the woods.

Don't Break Down.
Severe strains on the vital organs, like strains on machinery, cause breakdowns. You can't over-tax stomach, liver, kidneys, bowels or nerves without serious danger to yourself. If you are weak or run-down, or under strain of any kind, take Electric Bitters the matchless, tonic medicine. Mrs. J. E. Satisfaction positively guaranteed. 50c at Fariss-Klutz Drug Co.
